

Julius Thorn went back to Canada last Thursday to resume threshing, having been called home by the serious illness of Mrs. Thorn. He was accompanied back by several men from here and Jessie who will find work in Canada.