

Sutton by C. A. Laise.

Julius Thorn who was engaged in threshing near Ogema, Sask. Canada, was called home Sunday by the serious illness of Mrs. Thorn, who has typhoid fever. At this writing she is somewhat improved which is indeed pleasing news to her friends. Their daughter, Harriet, who also has typhoid, is recovering nicely.