

Robert Thorn was considered a lucky man, when last Wednesday he and Mr. Madson went out duck hunting and a large flock of geese passed over him not further away than he could reach them. And shoot he did, receiving as a reward three geese.

---