

Monsebroten.

Ed Trost, who is employed by A. C Green, on the Hemerlin farm, was the victim of a very painful accident Saturday, while plowing. He was riding on a gang plow when it struck a square topped rock, jerking him forward off the plow. He stuck out an arm to break the fall, and in so doing struck an oil can that was fastened on the tongue, with the result that the top of the can pierced his hand through the fleshy part near the thumb.
