

the youngsters had a real good time.

Word received from the Binford boys who are in the military training camp at Fort Snelling, is to the effect that the boys are enjoying their stay immensely. Rifles have been assigned them and in a practice shoot, Robert Truscott was one of four who got a score of 40 out of a possible 50.

At the meeting of the Binford