A party of young folks returning from the picnic held east of Cooperstown, Monday, had a very narrow escape from serious injury, or probably death, when the car in which they were riding turned over into a ditch of water. They were on the state road west of Cooperstown when the driver attempted to race with another car, lost control, and upset into the ditch. The occupants, Chris Barclay, Seth Anson, Miss Olga Vogen and Miss Nora Barclay, were all pinned under the car, but managed to get out without being hurt. Miss Vogen received a badly cut thumb and a bruised knee.
