

send for them.

E. F. Wallin and son, Ernest, who have been here for the past month visiting friends and attending to matters of business, will depart today for St. Paul for a visit with relatives before returning to their home at Anaheim, California.

The usual supper served by the