

A pleasant surprise took place Sunday, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. Wille, when members of his congregations took possession of their home while they were at church. The ladies dished up appetizing refreshments and the day was spent in a fine social way. Rev. Wille was presented with a purse of money.

Threshing is now general harvest