

dark, he says, and consequently being a law-abiding citizen he has refrained from waging war upon them. Other farmers of this area report having killed ducks whose crops contained over a pound of wheat or barley.

THIS BABY IS DISTINGUISHED FOR ANCESTRY

The Salmon (Idaho) Herald: A girl baby was born in Salmon Saturday, Oct. 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lewis. This youngster, who takes to life with usual alacrity, bears distinctive points in respect of ancestry, in that she has two living great great grand-parents. Mrs. Lewis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cooper, at whose home the mother and child are stopping. Also present with them are the great grandmother, Mrs. A. Colton, mother of Mrs. Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Prosser, their two children, Grace and Stanley Prosser, and S.

J. Colton, all of Binford, N. Dak. Mrs. Prosser and Mr. Colton are sister and brother of Mrs. Cooper. The living great great grand-mothers are Mrs. Wm. G. Colton of Binford, and Mrs. John Town of S. Russell, N. Y. Such degree of longevity is rarely found since the patriarchal days of Methuseleh.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRIGGS CO.:

Having received the endorsement of a large majority of the voters of Griggs county for the nomination to the office of State's Attorney for Griggs County, I respectfully solicit your further support and vote for this office at the General November election.

Yours for the enforcement of our laws, without fear or favor, and with the least possible expense to the people of Griggs County.

John Red,

Present State Attorney.
