

April 30.

The work at the local telephone exchange has become so heavy of late that two new girls have been added to the force. They arrived on Saturday last week via stork route and will make their permanent home with their happy parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Solee.

A very successful meeting of the