

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cannon on Monday, December 27th, a fine and dandy boy. Mother and child are doing very nicely and "Daddy" is as happy as a man with ten tons of amblyopie. The ten cent Havana filters are responsible for the huge clouds of smoke that suggest the return of Indian summer, yet, through the density of it all, we have visions of the loud papa chasing himself and his new heir about the establishment in a wild endeavor to restore order.
