

The Angel of Death.

Has again visited our midst, and by the performance of His cold bleak mission, has removed from his earthly home, Ole Borgerson, who has been a sufferer from consumption for the past several years. Departed was unmarried and is survived by his widowed mother Mrs. Julia Borgerson, two sisters, Mrs. Theo. K. Curry and Miss Alma Borgerson and one half-brother, Ole S. Gunderson. The great consolation which comes to us all at a time like this is the assurance that the loved one is at peace with his God, and in this particular case it has been the writer's privilege to remain with the deceased during a great deal of the time of his last illness, and to hear the testimonials and the assuring statements of this brother during his last hours, with regard to his spiritual condition, appeals to us as being the strongest recommendation of God's love and greatness that can be imagined. All who have had this opportunity can attest to the same. Oh, that we could all appreciate more fully the blessings surrounding us, that we might be more grateful to our Maker for that which we enjoy. The funeral was held from the Norwegian Lutheran church on Wednesday afternoon June 6th, at 2 o'clock p. m., and interment was made in the cemetery south-west of town.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dybvik and Rev. Swenson, both of whom delivered beautiful sermons. Rev. Dybvik also gave a very pretty talk in English after delivering his sermon in Norwegian. The floral tributes of friends were very handsome and truly appreciated.
