

Horsemen who feed baled hay should be careful to see that all the wire is removed from the hay before their horses eat it. Alfred Anderson lost a nice mare this week, and, as the cause was not known an examination followed which revealed the fact that the animal had swallowed a quantity of hay wire. The wire being rather indigestible, is believed to have caused her death.