

The band boys will give a dance and supper on Thanksgiving night, and preparations are being made for a grand old time. The committee is sparing no effort to make this an event to be cherished by all who attend.