

Government should feel the same way.

There will be a celebration at Binford on July 4th. The Binford band will furnish good music all day and there will be other attractions. An effort will be made to provide for an address by some able speaker which will be an interesting feature.

If you knew the value of Chamber