

enjoys the luxuries of life.

F. M. Wolf spent the forepart of the week in our town, looking after his business interests here. He and Mr. Lockett are very busy at present attending to matters in connection with the erection of their new drug store, which, when completed, will be a dandy.