

A bunch of citizens went out Tuesday afternoon and burned a good fire break around the village. We now feel quite safe from danger from prairie fires except on the east where there is no fire guard as yet, but it is the intention of the citizens to establish one there the same as on other sides.