

...in this vicinity.

The commercial club received the chemical fire engine last Friday and W. H. Dorry the agent was here to give it a test. The engine was purchased for the town and will become the property of the town, and, as the test proved very satisfactory, we now feel that we are better prepared for fire than we have been at any time during the past.

---

---