

Binford is about to organize a fire department. Steps have already been taken in that direction, and committees have been appointed to prepare important measures leading to the perfectionation of the movement. There are sixteen members now enrolled, and that number will constitute the regular membership. The officers will be elected tomorrow evening. Hurrah for Binford, have you heard of her? If not just keep your ear skinned.

A committee of warriors should