

The work of excavating for the new town hall has begun. This building is to be built by Ben E. Nelson, who is now in Norway, but the work can go on just the same for Ben can live on one continent and build houses on another with as much ease as he performs many others of his wonderful feats.

Damon's New Orleans Students