

plete success along all lines.

In our last issue we failed to announce that August Evers has been appointed as agent for the Great Western Elevator Co., at this point, so this week we will make the announcement and we all rejoice with you over his success in landing the job, and furthermore we wish him success.