

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Evers has suffered considerably of late from an abscess on the back of his knee. The cords of the leg were badly contracted Sunday, when the little fellow was brought to Dr. Truscott who lanced the abscess and gave relief to the patient. We are informed that he is rapidly improving at this time.