

Christ Greenland departed Monday for Marion, this state, where he went to take possession of an elevator for the D. S. R. Johnston Land Co. Chris has long served as second man at the Farmers' elevator here and is perfectly capable of performing the duties of grain buyer, and we all wish him success altho we regret to see him go. Chris, like the other boys, subscribed for the TIMES before he left.