

Messrs. G. E. Kilmer and F. A. Hennig, photographers of Wimbledon, spent a few days of this week in our town, getting pictures of our attractive buildings and beautiful prospects. They departed on Wednesday for Hannaford. They are very pleasant gentlemen to meet and very convenient to have^m around, for they are both band boys and can chink in pretty well most any old place you need them.