

Theodore Kittelson, departed on Monday for Balfour, to put in his crop. Theodore has 160 acres of the best farming land that Uncle Sam ever compelled a man to spend his time on, and when he gets it in his own name he will be one of the bappiest boys in the land.