

whom she makes her home.

The announcement of Mason Knapp for sheriff appears in this issue and we ask our readers to note it carefully. Mr. Knapp is a candidate for nomination on the Democrat ticket, and we do not feel as though this fact should properly stand in the way of his being successful. He is a favorite among his acquaintances, and, being a good man in every conceivable manner, he will doubtless make a good run.

J. F. Johnson of the Crane Johnson