

John Maurer departed on Saturday for Moorhead, to enter Concordia College for the winter. John was there two years ago and likes the school quite well, but during his stay there that time he landed in the pest house under a quarantine for small pox. It is hoped that he will escape all misfortunes this time.

Dr. Schaefer and Rev. and Mrs.