

Ben E. Nelson has his ice-cream parlor artistically decorated with handsome flower creations and the national colors. Ben is a loyal old boy to his country as well as his town and he will very likely be doing business in a short time.