

purpose.

Hans Overby left Binford, Wednesday for Dawson, where he has a claim. He will be gone from here all summer and arranged for the TIMES to follow him. That is the proper thing for all who leave here and want to know what is going on at home. The TIMES will keep you posted. It will do the same for all who are here and not already reading it. Don't read the other fellow's paper, for it is imposing upon him and it does not help us in a material way.

Among those who attended