

Ole O. Brodshaug spent the whole of last week doing carpenter work at Pekin.

Mrs. John Pratt of Toronto, Canada, is a guest at the home of her brother-in-law Mr. Geo. Pratt.

Master Freddie Wilke of Wimbledon, arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with Druggist Lockett.

Try our Diamond Sheaf Preserves. All flavors—O. S. Gunderson & Co.

Every thing that is good to eat at—O. S. Gunderson & Co.

Martin Fredrikson returned last week from Minneapolis, and has gone to Pekin where he will run an elevator.

The TIMES has a few hunting cards on hand so that those who desire them can get them.

We will furnish you lard in any amount from one to a thousand pounds. Pioneer Meat Market.

Mr. Hubbard Knapp, father of Mason Knapp, was a caller at this office Monday afternoon. His name now adorns our list.

FOUND—A light duster, which was brought to this office to be held for the owner. The owner will please call and take same away.

A postoffice has been established at Pekin, and P. P. Idsvoog is the postmaster. The new office began doing business on Monday of this week.

Senator and Mrs. Crane and daughter Miss Kathleen and Atty. Baldwin passed thru town Tuesday forenoon in an auto, enroute to the Senator's farm near Willow Lake.

F. W. Soule the eye sight specialist will be at West Hotel again Monday Oct. 1, prepared to examine defective eyes and fit glasses when needed. Don't miss this chance. 21-t-2

Geo. Bowe and son Allison departed Tuesday for Fargo, where they went to be present at an operation upon Frank Bowe who recently received very serious injuries at the elevator.

Work has begun on the residence of J. H. Sinclair in the north part of town, and will proceed as rapidly as possible. We are informed that when it is completed Mr. Sinclair will have a handsome home.

John Skarstad, who recently arrived here from Rushford, Minnesota, went to Aneta the latter part of last week, and is now occupying a good position in the general store of Magnus Greenland at that place.

If there is any thing that you want from the Pioneer Meat Market that we don't carry on the wagon tell "Jack". He will be back.

FOUND—A gentleman's rubber lined duck coat. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

Selz Royal Blue, Selz Supreme and R. E. Z. Shoes in the latest and most up-to-the-minute styles—O. S. Gunderson & Co.

Dr. Truscott has purchased a "Bush & Gerts" piano, which he received from Stone's Music House, Fargo, and installed in his home. Tuesday. The instrument is giving good satisfaction.

The editor's family was treated to a nice mess of ducks for Monday dinner, the same being a present from Mrs. August Evers. As usual we are grateful for the favor and can assure Mrs. Evers that the game was highly appreciated.

LOST—Monday afternoon in front of the First National Bank building, a $5 bill. Finder please leave same at Greenland, Pritz' store or at the TIMES office.—GENE PITTINGER.

By buying lard of the Pioneer Meat Market you get more for your money and are sure of what it is made and how it is made.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Krogfoss went to Aneta, Sunday, to visit their grand daughter, Miss Sloulin, who was born just a few days previous. Mrs. Krogfoss remained there for a few days, while O. K. returned Tuesday.

A. I. Widlund, the Grand Forks druggist, has been named as vice consul at that point for Norway. H. Bendike, holding down the same job for Sweden.—Evening Times Record. Mr. Widlund is a brother of Robert and Fred Widlund, who reside south of town.—Ed.

P. P. Idsvoog returned Tuesday from Pekin where he has been handling the agency for the townsiters people. He returned to again take up his duties on Wednesday. He is also looking after the building of the store building for his firm and taking it all together he is somewhat busy