

success.

Harry Williams is making a record for himself as agent for the Saturday Blade and Chicago Ledger at this place. His efforts to sell papers have been so successful and the publishers have appreciated the results so much that Harry's photograph appeared in last week's Blade along with two other hustlers. Harry is a good newsboy and may some day make his mark.

Sheriff Flynn, that is, Jack, and we