

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wolfe spent a couple of days in town last week, and departed Saturday for their home at Fargo. While here Frank went out wolf hunting with some of our sports, but he did not have as good luck as he had hoped for, probably because he wears an "e" at the end of his name which act was disapproved by his quadruped brothers and they naturally refused to associate with him.