

time threshing and plowing.

Rev. Horstmann received the sad news by wire yesterday, that his mother had died at the old home in Hoyleton, Illinois, and he and his wife left on the afternoon train, to be present at the funeral obsequies.

Rev. Horstmann is receiving