

Josephine, the little four and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Trostad, residing northeast of Jessie, met her death in a peculiar manner Tuesday, at noon. Her father was unloading some wood onto a pile and the child got up to the pile unnoticed by her father, the pile gave way and the child was caught under the falling wood receiving injuries that resulted in her death shortly after. The grief stricken parents have the sympathy of their many friends. The funeral was held today from the West Prairie church.

The Buhheit Bulletin