

Mrs. Knute Anderson was taken to the hospital at Northwood last week Tuesday and Monday of this week was operated upon. Mrs. Anderson underwent two operations about four years ago for gall stones, but had not recovered fully, the third one being necessary. Mr. Anderson has had more than his share of misfortune in his family. His son, Fred, has had two operations, and a some six years ago, while Mr. Anderson was riding horseback, he was pitched off in such a way that caused internal injuries, and had to have an operation. It is hoped that Mrs. Anderson recovers completely from her operation, and misfortune passes by them in the future. Mr. Anderson went to Northwood Sunday to remain with his wife a few days.
