

J. W. Arctander of Minneapolis held the boards at the opera house Monday, lecturing on gold dredging on Colorado River. He explained his case clearly, and several bought a lot of stock which ought to be worth $10 a share inside of two years, according to Mr. Arctander's figures.