

Adolph Aslakson leaves tomorrow with a carload of personal property for Camrose, Alberta, where he will join Albert Alfson and the way these sturdy pioneers will rip up the earth in the king's domain won't be very slow. We regret their departure but hope the boys will get along nicely.