

The band is making rapid progress under the able direction of Mr. Brodshaug. It was necessary to take in some new members to make better instrumentation, and those who have joined show excellent signs of becoming masters of their respective parts. The new members are: Artbur Anderson, slide trombone; Oscar Idsvoog, 2nd cornet; Carl Grove, 3rd cornet; Artbur Idsvoog and Helmer Hanson, altos. Several others are figuring on joining.
