

J. H. Sinclair has sold his residence and also his interests in the First National Bank to Oscar Greenland of this place. Mr. Sinclair has been cashier of the bank since it opened for business, about two years ago, and under his management the institution has been very prosperous. Mr. Greenland is a stockholder and is the new cashier. Mr. Sinclair intends to go into the banking business with his brother Fred at Portal, this state. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will be sorry to see them leave, but hope that they will enjoy health happiness and prosperity in their new home.

---