

The Great Western elevator, to take the place of the one burned down a couple of months ago, was completed this week and the men left on Tuesday. Part of the crew went to Jessie, where they will do some repair work. The new elevator is the largest in town, and is modern in every respect. Buyer Evers shipped his first two cars yesterday.