

F. G. Lewis and John E. Olson have made a deal whereby Mr. Olson becomes proprietor of the Pioneer Meat Market in exchange for land which he has turned over to Mr. Lewis as a consideration. Mr. Lewis has done very well in the business here and while we regret his departure from business here, we bespeak a successful business for Mr. Olson and hope that F. G. will remain in our midst.

---