

ance of our town.

The I. O. O. F. Memorial service last Sunday was a very successful affair. Rev. Oscar Purinton of Cooperstown officiated in a most able manner and his remarks were very impressive. His sermons are always good and thoroughly enjoyed by all who hear him. Several members of the lodge who reside in the country were present and the procession to the cemetery was a long one.