

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT

The Juvenile Dramatic Club Will Appear Before the Foot- Lights.

The Juvenile Dramatic club, composed of Sunday School children, under the able direction of Mrs. W. E. West, will put on the drama, "Joe" at the opera house tomorrow (Friday) evening.

The play consists of two acts, and is full of interesting features—and all the more interesting because of the young folks representing the characters. They have been rehearsing assiduously for a long period and expect to go thru the performance without a "break."

Judging from the interest taken in the play and the advance sale of seats a good house full will greet them. Following is the cast of characters:

Joe	Tina Davidson
Marjorie	Esther Dahlin
Kitty Blanchard	Hildur Gunderson
Dolly Blanchard	Julia Alm
Master Jack	Iver Alm
Master Sam	Ejnar Gunderson
Katy	Lillian Swenson
Pussy	Inez Greenland
Micky Flynn	Harold Wilson
Mrs. Morton	Goldie Hanson
Mrs. Neal	Martha Sunberg

The price of admission will be 35c for adults and 15c for children.
