

At a meeting of the members of the Norwegian Lutheran church congregation Monday it was decided to make a number of needed improvements, both to the interior and exterior of the church edifice. A bell will be hung in the tower, the building repainted and an altar put in. It was also decided to make improvements on the church lawn.

Courier: Messrs. Hammer-