

Postmaster Gundersen has received blanks for applicants who desire to take examinations for rural route carriers. A county examination board will be established in Griggs county and the first examination will be held on April 10th. Mr. Gundersen now has two applications for carriers but four more are required.