

A prairie fire was raging north of town last Friday, and for a while it threatened property in that end of town. It is understood that two young boys set the fire in a playful manner, but it soon got beyond the amusement point. The boys are warned to refrain from any further such tactics.