

The N. P. painters who have been in Binford for the past two weeks finished up their work on Saturday and left on Monday. The new depot shows the effects of their handiwork as will the palatial residence of Sam Standabl on Railroad street.

Agent and Mrs. West are now comfortably installed in their cozy home over the depot. The painters and decorators took a great deal of pains with the interior furnishings of the buildings and every thing is fixed up in ship shape style.