

Last Friday the passenger engine broke down at Jessie and delayed the train for 6 hours, and on Monday the freight train ran off the track this side of Sanborn, ditching 12 cars of freight, which caused a delay of Monday's mail until Tuesday at usual time.