

From now on until the 4th the N. P. will attach a coach on their local freight for the accommodation of passengers. The train will run on its schedule time—west on Friday in the evening and east Saturday morning. Agent West proposed this to the company and they acted on his suggestion, but without notification. Hence, it was impossible to advertise it earlier.