

The railroad company is to put in a pumping station here in the near future, we are informed. They have received a large force pump of four cylinders and it looks as though the water question will soon be solved by the officials so far as this branch is concerned, for Binford can certainly furnish the very best of water in large quantities and without going very deep to procure it.